DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 22 May 2006 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1, 10, 11 and 32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by either Patel et al (Patel I, U.S. Patent Application Publication 2004/0145088 A1) or Patel et al (Patel II, U.S. Patent Application Publication 2004/0207123 A1).

Art Unit: 1732

Patel I (see the entire document, in particular, paragraphs [0001], [0011], [0024] - [0070]; Examples 2 and 4) and Patel II (see the entire document, in particular, paragraphs [0001] and [0008] - [0045]) teach a process of making a three-dimensional object as claimed, including the use of norbornene (e.g., oxetane) materials.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35

U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

6. Claim 31 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over either Patel et al (Patel I, U.S. Patent Application Publication 2004/0145088 A1) or Patel et al (Patel II, U.S. Patent Application Publication 2004/0207123 A1).

Dispensing a layer of build material onto a layer of initiator would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made in the process of either Patel I or Patel II principally in order to combine the build material with the initiator and manufacture a desired three-dimensional object.

Double Patenting

7. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

8. Claims 1, 10, 11, 31 and 32 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 16-35 of copending Application No. 11/345,479. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because a radiation initiator would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made in the process of instant claims 1, 10, 11, 31 and 32 in view of claims 16-35 of Application No. 11/345,479 principally in order to cure the build material and manufacture a desired three-dimensional object.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

9. Claims 1, 10, 11, 31 and 32 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1, 2 and 4-12 of copending Application No. 10/623,005 in view of either Patel et al (Patel

Art Unit: 1732

I, U.S. Patent Application Publication 2004/0145088 A1) or Patel et al (Patel II, U.S. Patent Application Publication 2004/0207123 A1). Claims 1, 2 and 4-12 of Application No. 10/623,005 recite a process of making a three-dimensional object as set forth in instant claims 1, 10, 11, 31 and 32, except for the aspect of a norbornene material, which is taught by Patel I and Patel II (e.g., oxetane) and would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made in the process of the instant claims principally in order to manufacture a desired three-dimensional object

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection.

Response to Arguments

10. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 10, 11, 31 and 32 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
